

Newly Established Scholarship Funds

Charles Cornwell '61 Scholarship—Established by alumni friends Roger Brown, Class of 1978, Jim Haynes, Class of 1980, Bruce Holliday, Class of 1978 and Steve Holman, Class of 1978, in honor of this Professor Emeritus of English and member of the Class of 1961, this endowed scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need, preferably from a rural area.

Dowd Foundation Scholarship—Established anonymously, this scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need and is in support of The Davidson Trust.

Ann Gray Harvey '78 and Thomas Schultz Scholarship—Established by Ann Gray Harvey, Class of 1978, and Thomas Schultz, this endowed scholarship is in support of students with demonstrated financial need, and with a preference for women who have an interest in STEM fields (specifically biology, chemistry, physics, math, psychology, neuroscience, environmental science or computer science).

Thomas D. Hunter III Scholarship—Established by Miranda F. Hunter and sons, Thomas D. Hunter IV, Class of 1993, and John Bradley Hunter in memory of Thomas D. Hunter III, Class of 1960, this endowed scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need. Preference should be given to those who enjoy outdoor activities such as hiking, fly-fishing, hunting and more.

Kirkland-Sickles Family Scholarship—This scholarship was established by Robert and Elizabeth Kirkland Sickles, both Class of 1988 alumni, and endowed by Ann and Bill Kirkland, Class of 1962. The families hope to see students make the most of their Davidson experience by developing deep friendships and exploring academic pursuits that fulfill and challenge them by learning to balance the intense academic and social environment, and by learning to ask questions and to listen intently and carefully to the answers.

Berkley '69 and Peggy Latimer Scholarship—Established by Peggy and Berkley Latimer, Class of 1969, this endowed scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need and is in support of The Davidson Trust. Preference should be given to children of teachers or educators.

Dr. William "Doc" Lawing '73 Scholarship—Established by Heather West Dyer, Class of 1994, and T. Gray Dyer Jr., Class of 1996, to honor J. Estes Millner Professor of Music Dr. William Lawing, Class of 1973, this endowed scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need.

Lulie and Lynwood Mallard '62 Scholarship—Established by Lulie and Lynwood Mallard, Class of 1962, this endowed scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need.

Danielle and P.J. Martin '04 Golf Scholarship—Established by Danielle and P.J. Martin, Class of 2004, this scholarship provides assistance for outstanding members of the golf team.

Rebecca and Chad Morgan '96 Davidson Trust Scholarship—Established by Rebecca and Chad Morgan, Class of 1996, this endowed scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need and is in support of The Davidson Trust.

Bill and Marianne Pierce Scholarship—Established by Marianne and Bill Pierce, Class of 1971, this scholarship provides assistance for outstanding scholar-athletes.

Leigh Rawdon '95 and David Rolf Scholarship—Established by Leigh Rawdon, Class of 1995, and David Rolf, this scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need and is in support of The Davidson Trust.

Reverend Samuel Tallman Scholarship—Established by Rev. Samuel V. Tallman Jr., Class of 1969, this scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need and is in support of The Davidson Trust.

Jerry E. Vaughan Scholarship—Established by Jerry E. Vaughan, Class of 1961, this endowed scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need.

West Virginia Scholarship for Davidson College—Established by Andrew B. Cooke, Class of 1990, and Marjorie Havighurst Cooke, Class of 1991, and other alumni who care about the West Virginia-Davidson connection, this endowed scholarship provides assistance for students from West Virginia with demonstrated financial need.

Ed and Carol Willingham Scholarship—Established by Kirk Willingham, Class of 2001 and Reid Leavitt Willingham, Class of 2000, in honor of Kirk's parents Ed Willingham, Class of 1976 and Carol Connor Willingham, Class of 1977, this scholarship provides assistance for a student with demonstrated financial need and is in support of The Davidson Trust.

Luther B. Yaun '54 Scholarship—Established by Matthew L. Yaun, Class of 1990, in honor of his father, Luther B. Yaun, Class of 1954, this endowed scholarship provides assistance for students with demonstrated financial need and is in support of The Davidson Trust.